Art Exhibit: The Silk Road Art Guild's "Can You Picture It?"

May 6th

The Boylston Library is hosting the special exhibit Can You Picture It? created by the artists of the Silk Road Art Guild. The exhibit explores the essence of Chinese brush painting, and the importance of the human relationship to the natural world. The Silk Art Guild is a cooperative organization composed of Central Massachusetts artists who celebrate and exhibit the art of Asia from the middle-east through India to the Islands of the Japanese Archipelago. Take a look at this diverse, unique collection showcasing local artists throughout the month of May.

Terrific 2s & 3s Story Time

Every Tues. @ 11AM

Those toddling two and three-year olds will love this active and fun Story Time inside the library! Registration required; space is limited. If registration is full or you prefer to watch Story Time online, register for the Online Story Time to join the group via Zoom.

Fabulous 4s & 5s Story Time

Every Weds. @ 11AM

Join us for this hands-on Story Time program geared for you curious and tenacious four to five year olds. Children will participate in different activities that provide room to explore concepts presented in the stories through STEM activities. Registration required; space is limited. If registration is full or you prefer to watch Story Time online, register for the Online Story Time to join the group via Zoom.

Bouncing Babies Story Time
