NOVEMBER 2026 BOOKS & MEDIA

Interested in ordering anything on this list?

Call us at 508-869-2371 or email: publiclibrary@boylston-ma.gov

(be sure to include your name and contact information)

FICTION

Author	Title	Genre	Date
Armstrong, Jess	The Lost Souls of Saint Oda's	Mystery/Romance	11/3

1923. Ruby Vaughn hoped the new year would bring less murder and far less of the occult, allowing her to spend her days at the rare book shop she runs, and exploring her fledgling romance with Ruan Kivell. But fate often has other plans. Ruby has long believed her entire family died when the Lusitania sank in 1915. When her solicitor brings news that her mother survived the catastrophe and he believes he's found her in a Belgian hospital, Ruby dares not hope it's true. With trepidation, Ruby and Ruan set off for Belgium. However, upon her arrival, Ruby learns the woman they sought had died and been hastily buried days before. Perhaps it is her jaded heart, but the more Ruby inquires into the woman's fate, the more suspicious the death becomes and Ruby and Ruan fear that both the occult and murder are at work in Belgium.

Baldacci, David	All In	Thriller/Suspense	11/10

From New York's glass-and-steel canyons to the glittering harbors of Australia, Devine is pulled into the orbit of the Woolwine empire--an Australian dynasty whose fortune makes them more powerful than some nations. Partnering with Anais Jones, a driven, Sydney-based homicide detective, he uncovers a lethal convergence of rogue intelligence operations, Russian mobsters, compromised prisons, and a quiet campaign to redraw the global balance of power.

Balle, Solvej	On the Calculation of Volume (Book V	Sci-Fi	11/17

It’s been a while since Tara Selter was all alone in her repeating November day. It’s been even longer since she was one half of a unit called T&T Selter, an antiquarian book dealership she ran with her beloved husband Thomas. Her hazy days of confusion are behind her, and so are her desperate and doomed attempts to reattach herself to linear time. Tara has begun to settle into a new life, with new habits, and new people, and so have the many other time-trapped individuals who have joined her along the way. And yet we can’t help but wonder whether she and her fellow travelers will ever find their way out of a trap so inexplicable and profound—and will they even still want to?

Battles, Brett	Stuart Woods' Hostile Intent	Thriller/Suspense	11/17

When Stone Barrington receives a call from Ben Bachetti, asking him to attend an urgent meeting with Centurion Pictures' board of directors, Stone wastes no time in getting to Los Angeles. After all, a date night with Josie Hale is long overdue. There, he learns a company called Zelzah International is attempting a hostile takeover of a friend's independent film group, and Ben needs the board's help in putting a stop to their malicious antics. While Stone and the board work with Ben to deal with Zelzah, Stone's pilot Faith gets in a bad accident. Suspicious that she was set up, Stone must investigate who wants Faith dead and why, before both crises spiral out of control.

FICTION
Author	Title	Genre	Date
Benzine, Rachid	The Man Who Read Books	Literary Fiction	11/10

A young French photographer travels to Palestine to report on the bombings in the Gaza Strip. One morning, during a ceasefire, he wanders far from his hotel into the narrow alleys of the city. Roaming aimlessly, he stumbles across a bookseller sitting on the doorstop of his shop. As the photographer raises his camera, the bookseller calls out to him and asks him to listen to his story, not simply take his picture. The story that unfolds is one that encompasses exile and imprisonment, activism and political disillusionment, the joys of love and art and watching your children grow up and thrive, and the tragedies that tear your loved ones from you. Each event is tied to the book that helped him understand and, in some cases, survive it, from Milan Kundera to Frantz Fanon to Umberto Eco to Ernest Hemingway, among many others.

Bowen, Rhys	To Crown It All	Mystery	11/17

Lady Georgiana Rannoch never expected to be more than a guest at the coronation of King George VI but murder and some international intrigue make for a change of plans...

Bradley, Alan	Numb Were the Beadsman's Fingers	Mystery/Historical	11/3

In the cloisters of Golgotha House, a mere binocular's-squint away from Buckshaw, a nun lies dead. When her fellow sisters prepare her corpse for burial, they discover that their companion has been living a shocking lie for years. The truth about her past, and the dark reasons she harbored for escaping it, are impossible to fathom. Charged with cracking this mystery is the firm of Arthur W. Dogger & Associates--consisting, of course, of the inimitable young Flavia de Luce and her faithful partner-in-detection Dogger. Working under the eye of a glowering Mother Superior, Flavia and Dogger must uncover a decades-old crime and a secret that lies an ocean away--along with a trail of deception that lies closer to home.

Cobb, May	All the Little Secrets	Thriller/Suspense	11/17

Longview is a place quite familiar with social scandal and unsolved crimes, but now that the queen has fallen from her throne, there's more at stake than just pinning a murder on someone. For those who would relish their own empire, like a certain trad wife or a deviously ambitious daughter, the town crown is there for the taking--if you're not taken to jail first. No one is innocent here, not in the land of big hair and bigger mischief. You can't get what you want without a little collateral damage--and everything's bigger in Texas.

Coble, Colleen Acker, Rick	She Will End This	Christian/Suspense	11/10

A simple DNA test shatters everything Britt believes about her past. The father she loved was not her biological parent, and the mother she trusted has spent decades hiding her CIA past. Worse, Britt's real father is a disgraced Mossad assassin known in the intelligence underworld as Abaddon. Before Britt can process the truth, violence strikes. Five-year-old Willow Hamilton--the president's granddaughter--is kidnapped, and Abaddon becomes the prime suspect. Determined to help rescue the child, Britt joins forces with FBI Special Agent Stein Nordahl, a man who has spent years hunting the assassin responsible for his own father's death. To save the girl and stop Abaddon's catastrophic plans, Britt must confront the darkest question of all--whether she is defined by the blood in her veins or the choices she makes.

FICTION
Author	Title	Genre	Date
Cordani, Andreina	A Scrooge Mystery	Mystery/Cozy	11/3

Last Christmas, Ebenezer Scrooge was visited by three festive spirits, and the bleak vision of his future has haunted him ever since. He wants to be a good man, and he never wants to see another ghost as long as he lives. But changing your ways for a day is easy. Changing your ways for forever is a little trickier. Almost a year on, Scrooge is slipping back into bad habits. When a lucrative business opportunity comes his way, he jumps at the chance to make some quick money . . . to give to the poor, obviously. But then Scrooge sees her. Another ghost, silent and terrifying. Then Bob Cratchit is arrested for the woman's murder, and Scrooge sees only one way to save both his loyal employee and himself: he must solve this crime.

Cussler, Dirk	Clive Cussler Obsidian Sky	Thriller/Suspense	11/10

A forgotten civilization. A lost Biblical artifact. A criminal enterprise lurking beneath the seas. What links them with a potential cataclysmic event that threatens all of humanity? That's the question facing Dirk Pitt in this latest electrifying novel in the beloved New York Times bestselling series created by the "grand master of adventure" Clive Cussler.

Deaver, Jeffery	The Collateral Heart	Thriller/Crime	11/17

When a harrowing arson in Manhattan burns a building to the ground, Rhyme and Sachs are called to investigate, only to discover in the rubble a package of clues that teases where the perp will strike next. Rhyme and Sachs work feverishly to unravel the mystery, turning to an unlikely source for help: one of the nation's most popular history podcasters. Along the way they cross paths with Desdemona Vale, a determined detective from Long Island who is in search of the killer of a young woman from her neighborhood. As Rhyme's team digs into both cases, it becomes increasingly clear that their suspect's plot might be more complicated than they initially thought. But can Rhyme and Sachs unpack his vile scheme, and stop the carnage in time?

Doshi, Avni	The First House	Family Life	11/10

A husband announces he is leaving, that he was never happy. A woman is left behind with their two children in the house they built together, reeling at this forced recasting of the story of their marriage. Everything becomes strange: an encounter at the grocery store, a looming cicada horde, a statue of Diana that suddenly appears in her neighbor's yard. Or was it always there? As she wades through the aftermath of her marriage, her complicated family resurfaces. Although close to her parents, her relationship with them is strained, and she is fully estranged from her older sister--the perfect daughter--who still lives at home and always disapproved of her husband. So when did the trouble begin? And where will she go from here?

Evanovich, Janet	Split Second: Thirty-Two Switcheroo	Mystery/Humor	11/10

Over the years, Stephanie Plum has acquired a long list of enemies. The problem is that she now has a mysterious enemy whose name isn't on any list. Disturbing packages, threatening notes, and near misses are keeping Stephanie in the dark and her anonymous tormentor in the shadows. Greb Tusi also wouldn't mind getting rid of Stephanie. He's wanted for going on a three-hour rampage--one that he swears "wasn't his fault." And if adjusting to being newly married isn't enough to take a few years off Stephanie's life, working for her ex-fiancé and mentor, Ranger, might do the trick. The clock is ticking for Stephanie to find Greb Tusi and the invisible stalker. If she lets her guard down for even a split second, her time will be up.

FICTION
Author	Title	Genre	Date
Gray, Claudia	Jane Austen's The Watsons	Romance/Historical	11/17

The unsung heroine of Jane Austen's unfinished novel The Watsons is a privileged girl living with her wealthy aunt and uncle, absent any meaningful contact with her birth family. Then her life abruptly gets turned upside down: Her uncle dies, and her aunt remarries unwisely, which means she must return to Wiltshire and rejoin the greater Watson clan. There, she becomes an object of desire for the most eligible bachelor in the county, the proud Lord Osborne, but her own fascination alights upon Mr. Howard, the local clergyman. In the hundred pages Austen wrote before abandoning the novel, she asks: Can the youngest Watson sister afford to neglect the fortunes of her struggling family to truly follow her heart? But Austen never completed this book, leaving the heroine's fate undefined and open to speculation. Until now, as bestselling author Claudia Gray expands this story into a vivid tale of love, sorrow, social class, and honor.

Green, Dana Renee	Every Goodbye Ain't Gone	Women/Family Life	11/17

Renie has always done what's expected of her. At thirty-nine, she's a devoted wife, a mother of seven, and the kind of woman who puts everyone else first. But just weeks after giving birth to her youngest child, Renie is diagnosed with Stage 4 breast cancer and given three months to live. She begins a journal for her children, a way to leave behind the pieces of herself she won't be there to give. As Renie fills these pages she starts to see her life clearly--for the first time. The years of sacrifice. The dreams deferred. The woman she never fully allowed herself to be. And with that clarity comes the bold urgent decision to live on her own terms.

Guiltythree	Shadow Slave: Child of Shadows	Fantasy/LitRPG	11/10

Growing up in poverty, Sunny never expected anything good from life. However, even he did not anticipate being chosen by the Nightmare Spell and becoming one of the Awakened -- an elite group of people gifted with supernatural powers. Transported into a ruined magical world, he finds himself facing off against terrible monsters and other Awakened in a deadly battle of survival. What's worse, the shadow powers he received happen to possess a small and potentially fatal side effect. But that won't stop him. Born a slave. Destined for the grave. He chooses to survive. No matter the cost...

Hamilton, Laurell K.	A Glimmer of Death	Fantasy/Paranormal	11/3

I am Meredith Gentry. Princess of the realm of faerie, private investigator in the mortal land of Los Angeles, mother of triplets, and lover to my men--the royal guards sworn to protect me. With a family and a court to support back home, I can't say no to a job investigating a string of magical attacks against up-and-coming Hollywood actresses. Not when the case raises old nightmares from my own past. This time when I find out who is responsible for all this pain, I can make him pay.

Jance, J. A.	The Taken Ones	Thriller/Suspense	11/10

Despite her name, Twinkle Winkleman is as tough as nails. A skilled mechanic and certified spitfire, she has a nose for trouble. So when a young woman from Anchorage disappears after heading to Seattle for an internship that seems too good to be true, Twinkle is convinced that something dangerous is happening. But both the Anchorage and Seattle authorities dismiss her out of hand. With nowhere else to turn, Twinkle calls on an old friend: private investigator and former homicide cop J. P. Beaumont. With the clock ticking and multiple lives at stake, Beau and Twinkle must go above and beyond to stop the killings--and then bring the girls home before it is too late.

FICTION
Author	Title	Genre	Date
Jensen, Danielle L.	Defy the Dusk	Fantasy	11/3

Twenty years ago, Lirien's magic fractured the world and unleashed nocturnal creatures that brought civilization to its knees. Amidst the carnage came salvation: The most powerful survivors were invited to board Dawnrider, a high-speed rig that would deliver those aboard into a new era. The rest of humanity was left to die. Instead, a king rose from the darkness to lead them. In the years since, Lirien has dedicated her magic to Dawnrider while secretly plotting to overthrow the tyrant who rules the rig with an iron fist. But just as Lirien is ready to strike against him, she is violently abducted by Vox--the king of the feralists.
The mercurial Vox gives her two choices: Fight the creatures that hunt the night or be fed to them. Lirien agrees to join his ranks, but embarks on a strategy of seduction that will return her to Dawnrider.

Johnson, Craig	Have Courage	Mystery/Western	11/3

Walt Longmire, sheriff of Absaroka County, investigates a series of eccentric small-town crises in fifteen holiday-inspired stories. An old dog mysteriously escapes the animal shelter night after night. A deputy deploys an unexpected diversion during a hostage standoff. The baby Jesus vanishes from a nativity scene. And Walt faces one of his most challenging assignments yet: caring for a 150-year-old sourdough starter, while apprehending a seven-year-old suspect with the diction of a 1930s gumshoe.

Jonasson, Ragnar	The Body in the Bath	Mystery	11/10

As snow blankets Reykjavík and Christmas approaches, young detective Helgi is looking forward to a quiet holiday--until those plans are torn away in a flash. One month after his girlfriend Aníta is killed in a car accident, he returns to work in Reykjavík, haunted by loss and rage. The driver--Helgi's ex-girlfriend BergÞóra, a violent alcoholic whose abuse he kept secret--insists Aníta's death was an accident and walks free. To escape his mounting despair, Helgi throws himself into the unsolved disappearance of his predecessor, Hulda, a retired officer long presumed dead. But as he follows the traces she left behind, the lines between her past and his present begin to blur. When BergÞóra is later found lifeless in her bath, suspicion falls squarely on Helgi. With his own colleagues turning against him, can he uncover the truth in time?

Jonasson, Ragnar	Death at the Sanatorium	Mystery	9/10

(Released in 2024) 1983. At a former sanatorium in the north of Iceland, now a hospital ward, an old nurse, Yrsa, is found murdered. Detective Hulda Hermannsdottir and her boss Sverrir are sent to investigate her death. Less than a week after the murder, the chief physician is also found dead, having apparently fallen from a balcony. Sverrir rules his death as suicide and assumes that he was guilty of the murder as well. The case is closed. Almost thirty years later, Helgi Reykdal, a young police officer, decides to return to Iceland when he is offered a job at the Reykjavik police department--the job which detective Hermannsdottir is about to retire from. He is also a collector of golden age detective stories, and is writing his thesis on the 1983 murders in the north. As Helgi delves deeper into the past, and starts his new job, he decides to try to meet with the original suspects.

FICTION
Author	Title	Genre	Date
Keane, Mary Beth	Whale Harbor	Family Life	11/3

1960s, Ireland. In the wake of tragedy, a father makes choices for his eleven grieving sons. The older brothers will emigrate to England for work, while the younger ones will stay behind. The second eldest, Macdara, is offered a job on a Montana cattle ranch and sets off. His spirited younger brother Rian begs to come along and Mac promises to bring Rian to America as soon as he's old enough. But then one day Mac gets a call that Rian has gone missing. His disappearance will haunt Mac and his family across decades.

Kennedy, Louise	Stations	Family Life	11/3

In 1980s Ireland, Róisín and Red bond as only two precocious and disaffected teenagers can. Soon he knows the secret source of her shame and anger: the father who's abandoned her and her mother to never-ending strife. But what does Róisín know about why Red avoids going home to his own posh parents and house? When a Christmas visit to her father reveals the truth of his new life in London, Róisín tracks down Red and moves into his Pimlico squat. But the path he is now on is a disturbing one, and gradually they drift apart. And yet the great, never-consummated passion of her youth remains a visitation upon the years that follow. Will Róisín ever stop longing for Red? Will she ever learn to let someone else love her--or learn to love herself?

Klune, T. J.	Murmuration	Fantasy	11/17

On a temperate morning in 1954, Mike wakes up in the idyllic town of Amorea. Mike works his dream job at the local bookstore. At the diner, the walls are plastered with beaming photos of the residents, and all the staff know his order--especially Sean, the waiter who has a special smile just for Mike and, after years of anticipation, is ready to take the next step in their burgeoning romance. Everything is perfect. But the edges of the town are beginning to fray. Odd things catch Mike's attention. There are no children or parents in Amorea and no one who's left town for the far mountains has ever come back. There are subjects in the diner photos that only a few people can remember. One night, Mike wakes up to a stormcloud of starlings blackening the sky. And soon enough, he begins to question whether his name is even Mike. As violent memories of another life interfere with everything good about Amorea and Mike loses hold on his identity, he will do whatever he can to keep Sean from the darkness that is coming. Nothing here is perfect, but there is someone worth saving.

Lawson, Mary	Solace in Winter	Literary Fiction	11/10

It is deep winter, 1969. As the Vietnam War drives young men north across the Canadian border, widower Jack's quiet life is overturned by two accidents that happen on the bend in the road into town. First comes a dog in a bad way. Next a draft dodger, seriously injured, lying in the snow. Suddenly, Jack's cabin is busy with a growing cast of characters--and all the baggage, dreams and desires they're carrying. The atmosphere chills when Jack's daughter Sally drops by one day and doesn't like what she sees. What Sally does next changes everything, for everyone but herself.

Lupica, Mike	Robert B. Parker's Framed	Mystery	11/24

There has never been a more admired figure in the history of the Boston Police Department than Martin Quirk, Spenser's friend. Now an unknown adversary has devised an elaborate plan to ruin his reputation -- and his life. His bosses believe the lie. So does the whole city. The BPD won't allow Quirk to defend himself, and clear his name. That's Spenser's job.

FICTION
Author	Title	Genre	Date
Marsden, Gracie	Bones of Jade, Flesh Like Ice	Fairy Tales/Asian American	11/10

Eleventh century Kangzhu. In a small village, far from the political conflicts of the royal dynasty, a too-young Yu'er is sold off to be married at the word of a jing, a shapeshifting-demon who prophesizes that her parents will thus gain wealth beyond their imagination. Her new husband Xiaozhu is, like her, barely more than a child himself--but he's kind, and, over the years, Yu'er heals as they build a home together. Until misfortune befalls them, once again at the hands of a demon. They're left destitute and estranged. Reeling from loss, and determined to never leave her fate in another's hands, Yu'er decides to strike her own bargain with a jing: she will have all the agency and riches she desires. She just has to leave Xiaozhu and their home together, forever--a price that will cost her more than she then understands.

Matthews, Mimi	Miss Beresford and the Beast	Romance/Historical	10/13

Charlotte Beresford has spent far too long under the iron rule of strict governesses and unflinching finishing school teachers. When she's offered a brief window of freedom-an invitation to spend the summer with a recent acquaintance in a remote corner of Yorkshire, far from societal expectations-she jumps at the chance. Never mind that her new friend is odd, their chaperone questionable, and the village rumored to be cursed. Charlotte knows how to look after herself. All she must do is show a friendly face, keep her wits about her, and-above all-avoid the derelict manor house that stands on the edge of the moors...

McFadden, Freida	The Gift: A Short Story	Thriller/Psychological	11/3

Despite working two jobs, she can't even afford a present for her husband on their first Christmas together. It was supposed to be a magical holiday, but instead it's a reminder of how much she can't provide. Then a mysterious pawn shop owner offers Stella an intriguing trade. She wants more than anything to buy her husband the perfect gift. But there's a catch, and it may come at a terrible price...

Moran, Caitriona	The Trial of Magdalena Overmorrow	Fantasy/Romance	11/10

Magdalena Overmorrow has been called a scholar, a healer, a harlot. She carves out some measure of freedom for the women of Astoleyn, risking capture and death by caring for them and performing forbidden abortions. When she's betrayed by a close confidante, she faces banishment as an accused witch. There, she must await her trial under the watchful aegis of the Lord Proctor of Cair Gramora, a man so pious and humorless it is rumored that he has never laughed in his life. When she arrives, Magda is surprised to find that the Lord Proctor is a man barely older than she is. As cold and mysterious and beautiful as the mountains, he holds her life in his hands. One word from him could send her to the stake or worse, but she can't help her fascination with a man and fellow scholar who is more than he appears to be, and the dangerous secrets he is clearly keeping.

Nava, Danica	Sunflower Season	Romance	11/3

Drained by her high-pressure tech job, June Walker finds an escape in homesteading videos and the fantasy of a quieter life. When she finally hits her breaking point, she does the only reasonable thing: She quits her job and buys a crumbling sunflower farm in rural Oklahoma, where she grew up. June thought her biggest challenge in restoring Sunshine Farm would be the rotting fences but soon comes to the crushing realization that "positive vibes" are not a business plan. Nothing, however, tests her resolve quite like running into her first love, the boy she left behind when she was seventeen. Noah Abbott never left Love County. Between his family, his job with the local fire brigade, and a town that knows him inside and out, he has everything he needs--except answers. As old wounds crack open and attraction flares back to life, June and Noah are forced to reckon with their past and decide whether first love is a memory best left buried or the one thing worth replanting.

FICTION
Author	Title	Genre	Date
Oliver, Megan	Hate and Other Acts of Fiction	Romance	11/10

Sadie Stockton has the almost-perfect job leading tours through the former home of her favorite author, the enigmatic recluse Hazel Wilmont. But when the owners of the Wilmont House announce plans to increase the estate's revenue by hosting an overnight murder mystery set in a cocktail lounge, Sadie is less than thrilled. Yet again, Hazel's legacy is being tarnished by the fictitious, decades-old rumors she poisoned her husband(s). Worse? The new tour will mean working with none other than Ryan Pearson--local mixologist, and Sadie's long-standing professional rival and personal regret. With a potential promotion on the line, Sadie must play nice with Ryan in order to make the "Mixtures & Murder" tour a success. But over late nights and cocktail tastings, all clues indicate a reigniting attraction between the two. And as new discoveries at the mansion unfold, Sadie is forced to confront her own narratives about Ryan, about Hazel, and about the past she's tried for years to bury.

Paretsky, Sara	Bad Company	Crime/Mystery	11/10

To all appearances, Lily Sedako is an unexceptional retiree - a seventy-something single woman living in Chicago. But underneath that exterior, lies a remarkable past. A former CIA field agent, she spent her career in various Central Asian countries. But everything went sideways when Lily's connections to the mountain tribes resulted in her being moved to a new post and Rani, the tribal leader and first democratically elected President was removed, presumed killed, in a coup back in 2002. All of this is long behind her when she receives an anonymous package containing a magazine with an article about Hayalistan - an article with a previously unknown photo showing Lily in the background. This was no mistake - someone out there is trying to expose Lily, after more than two decades, for reasons unknown.

Patterson, James Allen, Nancy	The Murder Trial	Thriller/Legal	11/23

Eighteen-year-old Janelle Thompson is used to seeing her adoptive parents in the news. Her father is a rising political star. Her mother is the mind behind his first major campaign. Then one Friday night, the whole family makes headlines. Her parents are missing, declared dead--and all the evidence points to Janelle. A perfect family destroyed by a daughter barely old enough to vote. From her cell at Westfall Justice Center, Janelle swears she's innocent, that she loved her parents. If only she could convince someone--anyone--that she's telling the truth.

Peterson, Tracie	Devoted to Love	Christian/Romance	11/3

While Leah Garrison has a distrust of men after a friend's tragedy, Dr. Erik Sjolander refuses to believe in lasting love after his mother abandoned their family. When they clash over Leah's charity for unwed mothers, their hearts are tested as America edges toward World War I and dark secrets come to light. Will faith and love be the remedy they need?

Peterson, Tracie	Faithful of Heart	Christian/Romance	3/3

Judith Stanford receives word from her estranged grandfather urging her to move to Minneapolis to earn his inheritance. Roman Turner, a local physician with a heart for the poor, harbors a grudge against Judith's grandfather. When Judith meets Roman in an attempt to right past wrongs, can they overcome a shadowed history and find grace and love for the future?

FICTION
Author	Title	Genre	Date
Pirateaba	Immortal Games	Fantasy/LitRPG	11/10

A dangerous king stirs far away from the Wandering Inn even as Erin masters more skills, Ryoka starts her path to becoming a Courier, and Rags forms plans for her goblin empire in the second volume of Fae and Fare, Book Two in the Wandering Inn LitRPG epic fantasy series!

Rankin, Ian	The Heights	Thriller/Suspense	11/3

The Heights is London's most coveted luxury high-rise apartment--designed to satisfy every need, where self-made owner-developer Allan Franklyn himself has claimed the penthouse duplex. His neighbors include some of "Money London's" biggest personalities. The residents are used to service, deference, and privacy, all on their terms. But when nighttime concierge Dwayne Hogarth is found dead in the lobby, everyone's under the unwelcome scrutiny of Detective Sergeant Gillian Gish. Her questions begin with the party on the 4th floor the night Dwayne died, which ended with a fight; the missing key to one of the apartments; and a mysterious gap in the security camera footage. Before long, Gish uncovers the unsavory truths and dark secrets that lurk beneath the glittering facades of the building and its inhabitants.

Roberts, Nora	Birth of the Witch	Romance/Paranormal	11/17

Niamh McShane was born a witch and died a witch in the same moment, at the tender age of thirteen. A victim of the madness that spread from Salem Town to her home on Piety Island, in her last hours she found comfort from the weavers imprisoned alongside her, who saw within her light and power and gave her some of their own. More than three hundred years later, on the same island, Neve McShane wakes with excitement on her thirteenth birthday and unwraps gifts from her aunts: sneakers, an iPhone, and a stunning antique pendant. Then she receives something else: a revelation that will change her life.

Rosen, Ali	The Apparent Trap	Romance	11/1

Ezzie Halevi's life as a morning show producer is blissfully straightforward. But when sparks fly after accidentally introducing her widowed father to her show's recently hired, much younger coanchor, Ezzie's carefully curated routine starts to unravel. Worse, she discovers her dad's new girlfriend is the estranged daughter of Lee Morgan, the charming chef who leads a weekly cooking segment. The same chef who ghosted Ezzie weeks earlier. The only reasonable solution? Reluctantly join forces with Lee to break up his daughter and her father before anyone gets hurt. So Ezzie and Lee begin a secret campaign to tank the burgeoning romance. But soon, their own chemistry starts overshadowing the comically inept schemes.

Russell, Caskey	The Door on the Sea	Fantasy/Epic	9/22

When Elān trapped a salmon-stealing raven in his cupboard, he never expected it would hold the key to saving his people from the shapeshifting Koosh invaders plaguing their shores. In exchange for its freedom, the raven offers a secret that can save Elān's home: the Koosh have lost one of their most powerful weapons, and only the raven knows where it is. Elān is tasked with captaining a canoe crewed by an unlikely team including a human bear-cousin, a massive wolf, and the endlessly vulgar raven. To retrieve the weapon, they will face stormy seas, cannibal giants and a changing world. But Elān is a storyteller, not a warrior. As their world continues to fall to the Koosh, and alliances are challenged and broken, Elān must choose his role in his own epic story.

FICTION
Author	Title	Genre	Date
Russell, Caskey	The Eagle in the Mountain	Fantasy/Epic	11/3

Elān's life changed forever when the loud-mouthed raven chose him to go on a journey to save his people. Now returned from his quest, Elān is changed, withdrawn--and will not touch the weapon he is destined to wield. Raven knows that Elān must take up the weapon for his people. But Elān will not budge. The invading Koosh loom ever closer, and Elān's people have no hero to fight for them. So raven turns to Kwa, Elān's sour yet tough companion. Kwa is determined to prove herself, doing whatever it takes to become the warrior leader her people need her to be. With Chetdyl the wolf by her side, she prepares an attack against the Koosh. But she knows that what she really needs is the weapon Elān refuses to use. If he won't use it, she will. But the weapon will not bow to her - unless she does as raven says and pushes Elān through the Door herself.

Scalzi, John	Monsters of Ohio	Sci-Fi/Humor	11/3

Welcome to Richland, Ohio. Things aren't great. The town's biggest employer is closing shop, and Richland's on the brink. It's where Mike Boyd, with his own set of problems, finds himself returning to after decades away. He's not planning to stay. But Richland has other plans for Mike, his old friend Dave, and a newcomer Andi. They're caught in a swirl of local troubles, private equity, executive theft... and something extremely weird involving Jeremy Keller's prize cow. Welcome to Richland. Leave your expectations behind. Bring a tarp.

Score, Lucy	The Heist Before Christmas	Mystery/Romance	11/10

For reluctant psychic Riley Thorn, the holidays are less "magic in the air" and more "fire in the living room." Between the backlog of invoices, a PI license teetering on revocation, a disapproving grandmother lobbing ominous predictions about the upcoming wedding, and the fact that Riley cannot see a single thing about her own future with Nick Santiago, she just wants to survive until December 26th. Nick Santiago doesn't do "mellow." He's the man who owns a twelve-foot inflatable Santa and feels no shame about it. So if closing out the year means going undercover at the East Shore Mall to catch a slippery theft ring--even if it costs him one truly terrible security uniform and several shifts with the world's most punchable assistant manager--fine. The sooner he catches the bad guy, the sooner he can haul his fiancée under the mistletoe and convince her everything is going to be fine. They have five days to catch a thief, save a license-- And figure out why the future looks so suspiciously blank.

St. Clair, Scarlett	A Christmas of Chaos	Romance/Fantasy	12/1

The halls are decked. The souls are caroling. And Hecate, Goddess of Witchcraft, is warding the Underworld against a Kallikantzaroi invasion. For years, she's kept the menacing gremlins at bay. But this year, Hermes makes a mistake that could ruin Christmas for everyone in New Greece. Now, as Hades and Persephone prepare to celebrate Yuletide, the Underworld descends into chaos. Can the gods restore order before it's too late--or will their holiday be destroyed?

St. Clair, Scarlett	A Touch of Darkness	Romance/Fantasy	5/25

(Released in 2020) As Persephone struggles to sow the seeds of her freedom, love for the God of the Dead grows-and it's forbidden.

FICTION
Author	Title	Genre	Date
Starling, Caitlin	Milkteeth	Horror	11/10

The only thing more terrifying than a brood's hunger . . . is its mother's. Beatrice is a broodmother: a vampire responsible for nursing newly made fledglings through the first years of their unlife. She nests in an abandoned, isolated warren of office space beneath her patron's skyscraper, where she raises her fledglings--two difficult, hungry children of the night. But when she takes on a third, the balance ruptures. Her hunger swells beyond control. Her body alters, betraying its purpose, transforming her into something even more monstrous.

Steel, Danielle	Celebration	Family Life/Romance	11/17

Anna Hughes is a sought-after photographer. Six years after the love of her life passed away, she finds fulfillment in her work and in being a mother to her two adult daughters. While in Los Angeles to photograph a famous actress, Anna's son-in-law asks her to consider being on a dating show for seniors called Golden Couples. She politely declines, though she agrees to attend at a dinner for potential cast members. At the dinner she meets Shep Anderson, a bank manager devoted to his late wife's memory, his sailboat, and his adult son, Bill. Though neither Anna nor Shep is looking for a new partner, they are drawn together in friendship, and perhaps something more.

Sutanto, Jesse Q.	An Edge Sharp Enough	Fantasy	11/17

Mara has no memory of life before her assassin training behind the fortress-like walls of Tchu-Morrokhai, which has been her world since she was five. She longs for a world once again filled with magic--and freedom and love. And she'll do whatever it takes to find those things. In the faraway city of Velingard, Livya is the privileged daughter of the revered scientist whose invention of an indestructible new metal was the catalyst for a great revolution. But when an invite to a secret salon leads to a kidnapping attempt, Livya is suddenly on the run--with the unlikely aid of charming con man Kaian, a once dear childhood friend inexplicably turned frosty stranger. Captain Fonde has served Velingard faithfully in the twenty years since the revolution, and all has been peaceful... until now, when he's informed that their "indestructible" metal is inexplicably starting to crumble. Could it be that the metal--and therefore the revolution--was flawed all along? Or is there something darker--evil, ancient, inhuman--at play?

Tan, Lucy	Tiger's Mouth	Literary Fiction	11/17

When two young men meet during a tech internship, it sparks an intense friendship--and even more intense competition--in this sweeping novel of privilege, identity, and ambition from the acclaimed author of What We Were Promised.

Tizzard, Gemma	The Nightingales of Boston	Historical Fiction	11/10

1942: Alice, an aspiring wife and mother, is hiding a happy secret and decides an evening at the Cocoanut Grove nightclub with her boyfriend George is the perfect way to celebrate. Inez, a young reporter, knows the Cocoanut Grove is as popular with the rich and famous as it is with young revelers, and she's eager for a hot tip. Nina, the ambitious head nurse at a nearby hospital, is halfway through her shift and hopes it will be a quiet night. But when a single spark at the club quickly explodes into a blazing inferno, all three of their lives change in an instant. A novel of survival, healing, and hope, The Nightingales of Boston is a novel that explores persistence, courage, and female friendship in the face of the unthinkable.

FICTION
Author	Title	Genre	Date
Trench, Virginia	Mr. Disappear	Thriller/Psychological	11/10

He's everything they want him to be: a confidante, a sexy escape, a thrill--all that and more can be theirs . . . for a price. His victims never saw the con coming. And it worked every time. Until now: the predator just became prey. What began as a Reddit true crime thread has escalated into a full-tilt hunt for the man behind countless masks. But are the women driving the search a match for a master criminal? One is an ex-journalist chasing her ticket back into the industry, another a woman with a personal motive that must remain secret, and the third? His current target. Can they outfox the ultimate swindler before he strikes again, this time with deadly consequences? In this tantalizing story of deceit and revenge, three women might get close to catching the devil--but will they get burned in the process?

Waal, Kit De	Sweet Pea	Family Life	11/3

When Paulette arrived in England as a young girl, she left behind a grandmother in St. Kitts who called her "Sweet Pea," taught her to cook, and admonished her to avoid temptation and embrace love and forgiveness, in that order. Now, Paulette's twenty-nine and within reach of her dream: a wedding, a baby, and a little house. She's got the man, handsome Denton, and a good job as an assistant nurse. But when tragedy strikes, her baby comes from Denton's friend, a relationship that can't last. Soon it's just Paulette, grieving the life she almost had, and her son, Bird. It seems like enough, until another boy, the same age as Bird, appears. Now, there's someone new to take under wing and worry about, someone who calls her Sweet Pea and makes her laugh. Through friendships, motherhood, and connections that emerge in the most unexpected places, Paulette discovers strength in everyday acts of kindness.

Williams, Niall	O Now!	Family Life	11/10

From novelist Niall Williams, bestselling author of Time of the Child and This Is Happiness, a new story set in the small Irish town of Faha, exploring love, loss, and the "why" of life.

Wilson, Carter	When They Find Me	Thriller	11/10

Expanse, Colorado. Population 313. A town so remote it barely exists on a map--the perfect hiding place for Annie Wolfe and her daughter, Coral. Their cabin is nearly off the grid, and Annie has done everything to keep them safe. Everything. But she knows the people hunting her don't forget. And they don't forgive. Riven knows about survival. She and her family have lived off the land for years, moving like shadows through the wilderness. Now her father has led them to this forgotten town, tracking the man he swears destroyed their lives. The plan is simple: strike fast, take revenge, and disappear. But when Riven knocks on Annie's door, their worlds collide. What follows is darker, stranger, and more dangerous than either woman ever imagined--because the hunt isn't just for vengeance. It's for the truth. And in Expanse, Colorado, the truth can kill.

Woodward, M. P.	Tom Clancy The Coldest War	Thriller/Suspense	11/24

The U.S. Navy rules the seas--not only above the waters but below. A large factor in that sovereignty is a network of undersea listening devices scattered around the worlds oceans. Through these devices the Americans have been able to track every move the Russians make for years. Now the Russians have found a solution--create a new ocean or at least ocean passage that only they can use. To this end, they have harnessed nuclear power to melt an icy passage above the Arctic Circle. Not only will this allow Russian ships and submarines to travel undetected, it will shift the balance of power among the navies of the world.
President Jack Ryan is faced with a insoluble problem. Any attack on the Russian icebreakers will be an act of war, and maybe even worse, because of the nuclear material being used, could lead to an environmental calamity of epic proportions.

FICTION
Author	Title	Genre	Date
Wrobel, Stephanie	Revenge Plot	Psychological	11/10

All Arnie Tenderton wants this Christmas--all he's ever wanted--is to be a published author. For decades he has toiled over one novel after another. Each was missing something. Until now. He's finally written his perfect book. What he needs next is a literary agent, someone who can get his book into publishers' hands. Not just any agent will do, of course. Arnie wants the best. Arnie wants Claudia Conley. She already rejected him once, and Arnie has never forgiven her. He could move on. Instead, he finds out where Claudia is spending the holidays: alone in a remote house in the Catskill Mountains. He decides to show up there to make his pitch. Claudia may try to turn him down again, but this time Arnie won't take no for an answer. Because his book is about her. And he's not leaving until the story ends the way he wants.

Yarros, Rebecca	Peculiar Stars	Romance	11/17

Callista Moran has spent a lifetime putting her own plans aside to care for other people. Once she and Darren Knight announce their engagement, she thinks her future is finally set. But when a routine sailing trip goes tragically wrong, a cyclone blows those carefully made plans away. Stranded on an island for the next eighteen months alongside the crew and her fiancé's cousin, Callista discovers a strength she never knew she had. And begins to question the life she always thought she wanted. With Dominic, an ex-army medic, she finds true peace--and a version of herself that she doesn't need to explain. They resist their connection at first, but as months wear on, and the hope of rescue fades, something real starts taking shape, built on who they are when everything else is stripped away.

Yuzuki, Asako	Butter	Psychological	10/29

(Released in 2024) Gourmet cook Manako Kajii sits in the Tokyo Detention House convicted of the serial murders of lonely businessmen, whom she is said to have seduced with her delicious home cooking. The case has captured the nation's imagination, but Kajii refuses to speak with the press, entertaining no visitors. That is until journalist Rika Machida writes a letter asking for her recipe for beef stew, and Kajii can't resist writing back. Rika, the only woman in her news office, works late each night, rarely cooking more than ramen. As the visits unfold between her and the steely Kajii, they are closer to a master class in food than journalistic research. Rika hopes this gastronomic exchange will help her soften Kajii, but it seems that Rika might be the one changing. With each meal she eats, something is awakening in her body. Do she and Kajii have more in common than she once thought? Inspired by the real case of a convicted con woman and serial killer.

Zeller, Mathilda	It Looks Like You in the Dark	Indigenous/Horror	10/13

Tapeesa is newly out of high school and working in a fish processing plant in the Inupiat village, Chukchi, where she's lived her whole life. Maybe that's why people tend to assume she isn't that bright--or maybe her mama is right and she does have bad blood. Either way, she knows the legend, and she knows the history. Her Ahna told her that the hungry creature--the kushtuka--appears to us in the form of someone we love. It will try to get us to follow it. Follow it where? Those who have gone no longer have throats to tell us. The Kobuk River Valley of remote Alaska draws greedy white men time and time again. But whenever they come, death comes too. This time the white men are here for the long term, to create an open pit, a rare earths mine just north of the village. When her sister Esther goes missing, Tapeesa will do anything to get her back. Seeking justice, Tapeesa must track down the kidnapper in the darkening Arctic. What awaits beyond the warmth of her village is more horrible than she could imagine and closer to her than she knows.

NONFICTION
Author	Title	Genre	Date
Clark, Melissa	The Big Book of Dinner	Cooking/Methods	11/17

Acclaimed New York Times food writer Melissa Clark presents her ultimate guide to cooking just about anything, with 175 any-night recipes--plus 150 tested variations--and lessons to make cooking easy, intuitive, and a total joy. Melissa Clark has been one of America's favorite recipe creators for decades, helping millions make stunningly great food with flair and no fuss. And now, with The Big Book of Dinner she gives you her ultimate treasure trove: all the recipes you need, the ways to riff off of them, and lessons you learn from them along the way to make you a great cook.

Coffman, Sam	Emergency Water: How to Collect, Purify, and Store Water During	Self-Help/Safety & Security	11/10

Prepare for a disruption in your home water supply by learning to collect, store, and filter water using the valuable information in this guidebook from a preparedness expert, former Green Beret, and author of Herbal Medic and Survival Gardening.

Fishman, Stephen	Home Business Tax Deductions: Keep What You Earn	Business & Economics	11/24

For any home business, claiming all the tax deductions you are entitled to is essential to your financial success. Don't miss out on the many valuable deductions you can claim. This book also covers the now-permanent 20% pass-through deduction and 100% bonus depreciation. Easy to read and full of real-life examples, this book can help you take advantage of all the valuable deductions you are entitled to. You'll also learn how to keep accurate, thorough records in case the IRS comes calling.

Gleick, James	The Telephone: A New History	Technology & Engineering	11/10

Today we are more dependent than ever on little objects called phones, although their ability to make "telephone calls" is incidental. The phone book and the phone booth may be vanishing from memory, but as James Gleick shows, the telephone's legacy is deeply ingrained--in our networks and our sophistication about networks, in the primacy of information, in the need for connection. Gleick is celebrated for his uncanny ability to make complex ideas vivid, understandable, and concrete. In The Telephone: A New History, he gives us a revelation: a story of technological breakthroughs that is also a universal history of intimate life.

Gosselin, Collin	In the Shadow of Eight: Surviving the Reality of My Childhood	Biography & Autobiography	10/13

For years, the world watched Jon & Kate Plus 8 through a lens of curated joy. But while the cameras captured the milestones, they missed the moments that defined Collin Gosselin's life: the Christmas morning where the gifts were reclaimed as soon as the cameras went down, and the basement room where silence was his only companion. Collin is finally sharing the truth about being held down, the basement cell where he was hidden for years, and the cocktail of powerful antipsychotics forced on an eleven-year-old boy. This is a reckoning with the dark side of fame: the systems, the entourage, and the institutions that allowed one boy to be erased. This is the never before told story of how he escaped and found his way back from the dark.

NONFICTION
Author	Title	Genre	Date
Howlett, Jordan	Come Here and Cook: Stories and Recipes from a Life at the Table	Cooking/Essays & Narratives	11/10

When his TikTok videos about working in the fast-food industry began to go viral, food became a catalyst for launching Jordan's successful media career. Jordan's videos reflect what he has learned throughout his life: food has the power to build community and connect people. Featuring 40 stories and 40 recipes, this cookbook-memoir shares the side of Jordan that only those closest to him know and love. He reflects on his childhood, his successes and failures, what it's really like having a career in social media, and how sometimes Plan B can turn out better than Plan A.

Khounnoraj, Arounna	Botanical Embroidery: A Garden of Plant and Flower Designs to Stitch	Craft & Hobbies	10/13

Embroidery artist and founder of the craft studio sensation @bookhou teaches you to stitch detailed, realistic flowers and botanicals: her new book offers a wide range of embroidery skills and demonstrates how each can be used to create lovely, naturalist designs for home goods, garments, and accessories.

King, Peter	The Game	Sports & Rec	10/13

With his signature blend of history, insider reporting, sharp opinion, and vivid anecdote, Peter King offers an extraordinary front-row-seat chronicle of the modern NFL, taking us into the defining moments, teams, controversies, and more.

Lewis, Michael	Blockers: Rebels in the Deep State	Political Science	10/6

An inside look at the early days of Trump's Department of Government Efficiency, as told by the public servants it targeted and one of America's best storytellers.

Lorre, Chuck	Sitcom: A Memoir	Biography & Autobiography	10/13

In this memoir on his life and career in comedy, Lorre trades punchlines for real talk: the messy, very human truth behind Hollywood's glossy façade, addiction, his own and that of his famous colleagues, his failed marriages, disastrous life choices, and chronic illness--all of which somehow became the ingredients for comedy. One chapter may leave you doubled over, the next might sneak in a lump in your throat -- but that's Chuck. That's sitcoms. That's also real life. If you've ever binged The Big Bang Theory, argued over your favorite Two and a Half Men character, or wondered how TV comedy gets made, this is your all-access pass. Spoiler: it involves failure, low-self-esteem, and an unshakable love for laughter.

Maddow, Rachel	Department of Fate: The Promise, the Power, and the Collapse of America's Most Consequential Institution	History/United States	10/13

Rachel Maddow leads a revelatory, rollicking trip through the history of the Justice Department, finding heroism and treachery in equal measure--and, in the end, a rescue effort for our battered democracy.

NONFICTION
Author	Title	Genre	Date
Makos, Adam	Tidal Wave: The Pilots, the Princess, and the Enemy Ace - A True Story of Courage and Survival in WWII	History/Wars & Conflict	11/3

In Tidal Wave, Adam Makos brings different lives together in a sweeping saga of courage and survival, set against history's most audacious air raid: the treetop assault on "Hitler's gas station" at Ploesti, Romania. What begins in flames on August 1, 1943, sparks bonds no one could have foreseen--alliances between enemies--that will decide whether these men and women are consumed by war, or seize their chance at escape and redemption.

Ollstein, Alice Miranda	Side Effects: How Abortion Bans Impact Everyone's Health	Medical/Public Health	10/27

In the turbulent aftermath of the Supreme Court's decision to overturn Roe v. Wade, the loss of abortion access created ripple effects that washed over the entire U.S. health system, making care both less accessible and of lower quality for millions of people. Alice Miranda Ollstein's explosive reporting offers an urgent, on-the-ground look at a medical system under pressure, at the patients and providers caught up in the dragnet of the new abortion restrictions, and at the impacts on both reproductive care and completely unrelated services. A work of deep reporting and profound humanity, Side Effects chronicles the experiences of real people who have lost access to other forms of reproductive health care, including contraception and IVF, as well as those of all ages, genders, and geographic locations hit by the spillover effects to medical research, hospital staffing, wait times, management of chronic illnesses, and more.

Vandome, Nick	Design with Canva in Easy Steps	Computers/Design, Graphics & Media	11/24

Design with Canva in easy steps shows how to get started with Canva (both the online version and the mobile app), and progress, to enable you to get designing like a pro in no time.

Whitmarsh, Tim	Rome's Age of Revolution: Augustus, Empire, and the Making of Christianity	History/Ancient	11/10

The Western world has been shaped by its Christian heritage--years are still measured by their distance from the birth of Jesus Christ. But Christianity was built on Roman foundations: it was Julius Caesar and his adopted son Augustus who created the calendar we use today and reset time itself. In these pages we travel with Paul along the vast network of Roman roads, revisit pivotal clashes with the kingdom of Judah, and discover the reality behind common misconceptions like the exaggeration of Nero's villainy and of Christian persecution. Rome's Age of Revolution is a thoroughly engaging portrait of an era and a religion that continue to leave their mark.

LARGE PRINT
Author	Title	Genre	Date
Baldacci, David	All In	Thriller/Suspense	11/10

From New York's glass-and-steel canyons to the glittering harbors of Australia, Devine is pulled into the orbit of the Woolwine empire--an Australian dynasty whose fortune makes them more powerful than some nations. Partnering with Anais Jones, a driven, Sydney-based homicide detective, he uncovers a lethal convergence of rogue intelligence operations, Russian mobsters, compromised prisons, and a quiet campaign to redraw the global balance of power.

LARGE PRINT
Author	Title	Genre	Date
Deaver, Jeffery	The Collateral Heart	Thriller/Crime	11/17

When a harrowing arson in Manhattan burns a building to the ground, Rhyme and Sachs are called to investigate, only to discover in the rubble a package of clues that teases where the perp will strike next. Rhyme and Sachs work feverishly to unravel the mystery, turning to an unlikely source for help: one of the nation's most popular history podcasters. Along the way they cross paths with Desdemona Vale, a determined detective from Long Island who is in search of the killer of a young woman from her neighborhood. As Rhyme's team digs into both cases, it becomes increasingly clear that their suspect's plot might be more complicated than they initially thought. But can Rhyme and Sachs unpack his vile scheme, and stop the carnage in time?

Evanovich, Janet	Split Second: Thirty-Two Switcheroo	Mystery/Humor	12/1

Over the years, Stephanie Plum has acquired a long list of enemies. The problem is that she now has a mysterious enemy whose name isn't on any list. Disturbing packages, threatening notes, and near misses are keeping Stephanie in the dark and her anonymous tormentor in the shadows. Greb Tusi also wouldn't mind getting rid of Stephanie. He's wanted for going on a three-hour rampage--one that he swears "wasn't his fault." And if adjusting to being newly married isn't enough to take a few years off Stephanie's life, working for her ex-fiancé and mentor, Ranger, might do the trick. The clock is ticking for Stephanie to find Greb Tusi and the invisible stalker. If she lets her guard down for even a split second, her time will be up.

Evans, Richard Paul	Mercy's Child	Christian/Historical	11/25

Based on a true story from an author synonymous with Christmas storytelling; and a historical figure, set in Gilded Age New York (1874). One woman whose single act of courage ignites a movement to protect the most vulnerable.

Garmus, Bonnie	Peck & Peck	Literary/Humor	11/17

It's 1982, New York City. Batter Gray, recent college graduate with a skill that no one wants--an "ear" for poetry--is worried about his future. While all of his friends have real jobs, he's folding T-shirts at the Gap. As for love? No. Not unless you count Sallie Mae, the student loan tyrant. But when Batter gets a dream job at Peck & Peck, the most prestigious poetry quarterly in the world, his life moves into the literary fast lane. Soon Batter is knee-deep in the secret war between the two Editors in Chief, the famous Peck brothers--twins and enemies--as well as being privy to the private affairs of their thirty-nine editors, whose professed mission is the same: Find originality. Reward creativity. Burn the rest. And by burn, they mean incinerate. Still want to submit your poem? Go with God.

Steel, Danielle	Celebration	Family Life/Romance	12/8

Anna Hughes is a sought-after photographer. Six years after the love of her life passed away, she finds fulfillment in her work and in being a mother to her two adult daughters. While in Los Angeles to photograph a famous actress, Anna's son-in-law asks her to consider being on a dating show for seniors called Golden Couples. She politely declines, though she agrees to attend at a dinner for potential cast members. At the dinner she meets Shep Anderson, a bank manager devoted to his late wife's memory, his sailboat, and his adult son, Bill. Though neither Anna nor Shep is looking for a new partner, they are drawn together in friendship, and perhaps something more.

AUDIOBOOK CD's
Author	Title	Genre	Date
Burton, Levar Lewis-Giggetts, Tracy Micha	Take My Word for It	Biography/Memoir	11/24

The legendary actor behind Roots, Star Trek: The Next Generation, and Reading Rainbow shares never-before-told stories from a life that has shaped generations—told at last on his own terms.

Dench, Judi O'Hea, Brendan	Is It Too Late to Make a Run for It?	Biography/Memoir	11/3

As told to Brendan O'Hea, this is Judi Dench's story – funny, honest, intimate, enlightening, surprising, moving, and deeply inspiring. Over ninety years in the making, Is It Too Late to Make a Run for It? is the story of the world's most beloved actor.

Erdrich, Louise	The Bingo Palace	Literary Fiction/Native American	11/24

At a crossroads in his life, Lipsha Morrissey is summoned by his grandmother to return to the reservation. There, he falls in love for the very first time--with the beautiful Shawnee Ray. But when all efforts to win Shwawnee's affections go hopelessly awry, Lipsha seeks out his great-grandmother for a magical solution to his romantic dilemma--on sacred ground where a federally sanctioned bingo palace is slated for construction.

Jana	My Name is Jana. I Am 15 Years Old. I Live in Gaza.	Autobiography	11/17

An unflinchingly personal insight into the lives of the Palestinian people and of unwavering hope through the diary of a teenage girl in Gaza. Through hunger, cold and continuous resettlement; under the constant threat of death, Jana has kept her promise to write it all down, be it on cardboard; on wet paper; on empty bags of flour. She promises herself that, when she has walls again, she will write on those too. Amidst the unspeakable horrors of a war that has claimed the lives of over twenty thousand children, Jana writes about the same two dreams again and again: her desire to become a doctor, and for the world to recognise her beautiful, individual existence: 'I am still Jana, and I am still here.'

Maddow, Rachel	Department of Fate	History/Politics	11/24

Rachel Maddow leads a revelatory, rollicking trip through the history of the Justice Department, finding heroism and treachery in equal measure—and, in the end, a rescue effort for our battered democracy.

Nelson, Willie	The Last Leaf	Memoir	11/24

Beloved American icon Willie Nelson shares his well-earned wisdom about reaching an astonishing creative flourishing, and not coincidentally, an even deeper union with the love of his life, Annie.

Picoult, Jodi	Hollow Bones	Historical Fiction/Mystery	11/24

On September 11, 2001, when Molly Fitzgerald was only two months old, her mother went to an appointment at the World Trade Center and never came home. Her father and the stepmother who raised her couldn't have loved her more, but she still grew up with a healthy dread of disasters. Hollow Bones is an epic story of the lies we tell ourselves as we write the narratives of our lives, the plans we design to protect ourselves at the worst moments, and the ties that bind mothers and daughters.

AUDIOBOOK CD's
Author	Title	Genre	Date
Ranking, Ian	The Heights	Thriller/Suspense	11/3

The Heights is London's most coveted luxury high-rise apartment--designed to satisfy every need, where self-made owner-developer Allan Franklyn himself has claimed the penthouse duplex. His neighbors include some of "Money London's" biggest personalities. The residents are used to service, deference, and privacy, all on their terms. But when nighttime concierge Dwayne Hogarth is found dead in the lobby, everyone's under the unwelcome scrutiny of Detective Sergeant Gillian Gish. Her questions begin with the party on the 4th floor the night Dwayne died, which ended with a fight; the missing key to one of the apartments; and a mysterious gap in the security camera footage. Before long, Gish uncovers the unsavory truths and dark secrets that lurk beneath the glittering facades of the building and its inhabitants.

Roberts, Nora	Birth of the Witch	Romance/Paranormal	11/17

Niamh McShane was born a witch and died a witch in the same moment, at the tender age of thirteen. A victim of the madness that spread from Salem Town to her home on Piety Island, in her last hours she found comfort from the weavers imprisoned alongside her, who saw within her light and power and gave her some of their own. More than three hundred years later, on the same island, Neve McShane wakes with excitement on her thirteenth birthday and unwraps gifts from her aunts: sneakers, an iPhone, and a stunning antique pendant. Then she receives something else: a revelation that will change her life.

Spencer, Charles	Swan Song	Biography/Memoir	11/24

In childhood, Charles and Diana, the youngest Spencers, were inseparable – secretly calling one another Duch and Carlos. As each other's closest confidantes, they roamed the family estate, endured extremely challenging boarding schools, survived terrifying nannies, and helped each other through the agony of their parents' divorce. In Swan Song, Charles Spencer provides the most intimate, loving, and honest portrait yet of his sister.

Tea, Michelle	Free Love	Biography/Memoir	11/17

In recent years, polyamory has become a topic of fascination for the general public, and not just for younger people as the established lines around sexuality shift and evolve. Infused with the warmth and introspection that inform all of her various artistic practices, Free Love is Tea's clarion call for greater visibility, acceptance, and a kinder, more sensual world. It is an unforgettable narrative from one of our most spirited ethnographers.

Woodward, Bob	Secrets	Memoir	11/24

Bob Woodward has reported on every American president from Richard Nixon to Donald Trump. His books have penetrated government institutions, informed the national conversation and shaped our culture. Woodward's one-of-a-kind reporter's memoir lifts the lid on his historic reporting relationships and secret sources, some spanning decades.

DVD's
Title	Genre	Rating	Date
The End of Oak Street	Adventure/Survival	PG-13	11/3

The Platt family bands together to navigate their new surroundings after a cosmic event transports their suburban neighborhood to someplace unknown.

DVD's
Title	Genre	Rating	Date
The Hunting Wives Season 1	Drama/Mystery	TV-MA	11/3

Sophie O'Neil moves to deep East Texas and succumbs to socialite Margo's charms. Her life is soon consumed by obsession, seduction, and murder.

K-Pop Demon Hunters	Pop Musical/Supernatural	PG	11/3

A world-renowned K-Pop girl group balance their lives in the spotlight with their secret identities as demon hunters.

The Magic Faraway Tree	Fairy Tale/Fantasy	PG	11/17

A modern family relocates to the countryside where the children discover a magical tree with eccentric residents. They're transported to fantastical lands, rekindling their family bond through adventures.

Mutiny	Thriller/Action	R	11/3

After his billionaire industrialist boss is murdered in front of him, Cole Reed is set up to take the fall for the crime -- leaving him on the run as he works to uncover an international conspiracy.

The Odyssey	Action Epic	R	11/17

After the Trojan War, Odysseus faces a dangerous voyage back to Ithaca, meeting creatures like the Cyclops Polyphemus, Sirens, and Calypso along the way.

Runner	Action	PG-13	11/17

A former soldier and his unlikely partner become the targets of a ruthless cartel while racing to complete a critical medical delivery and save the life of a little girl.

The Uprising	Action/Drama	R	11/3

Based on the true story of the uprising that inspired the legend of Robin Hood, Andrew Garfield stars as the leader of a rebellion against the tyranny of King Richard II in a fight for justice.